West Japan Railway Company
Osaka Terminal Building, Co., Ltd.

フラワーアートミュージアム 2016

Located in the space above Osaka Station, Toki-no-hiroba Plaza will be a field of flowers in the upcoming “Flower Art Museum” event. Proposed by architect Tadao Ando, the event has been held five times since its start in 2012. Created with approximately 20,000 pots holding flowers of diverse colors, the flower garden will provide a wonderfully healing time for visitors. This year a Halloween-theme flower garden will also appear so please enjoy the colorful and seasonal feel of the flowers.

《To media personnel》

- A venue for an interview with Tadao Ando is to be provided. (Around 11:35)
- Please come to the site reception desk by 10:45 on the day of the event.
- This is no parking lot or space for broadcast van parking.
- Please wear your company armband.
- For the coverage on the event day, please follow the instructions of the staff in charge.

■ Site layout (5F Toki-no-hiroba Plaza)

The site will be colorfully decorated with approximately 20,000 flower pots.

Toki-no-hiroba Plaza will become a brilliantly colorful field of flowers containing a wide range of flowers including representative autumn selections such as cosmos, cockscombs, and mums as well favorites such as gerberas and mini roses.

■ Halloween collaboration

There will be a garden based on a Halloween theme. With the symbolic objet representing a large pumpkin, the real pumpkins decorated with lamé and dots, and the coordinated blending of fashion and gourmet themes, there will be an exciting Halloween atmosphere worthy of Osaka Station City.
