

An Osaka Station City Summer Event

Details on FUN FAN FESTA 2017 Summer Festival

July 5, 2017

Osaka Station City Liaison Council
(Office: Osaka Terminal Building Co., Ltd.)

This year will mark the 6th FUN FAN FESTA*! With a modern Japanese take on summer festivals, this limited-time event transforms Toki-no-hiroba Plaza into a colorful festival!

Here are the details on the various festival-style features that will take place, from traditional Japanese decorations to iconic summer festival foods and drinks, stage events and workshops.

*The FUN FAN FESTA is a summer event held by Osaka Station City. The name expresses the fun people have and the fans the festival has gained.

Basic Details

1. Name

FUN FAN FESTA 2017 Summer Festival

2. Period

Friday, July 14 – Sunday, August 6, 2017 (24 days)

3. Venue

Toki-no-hiroba Plaza, 5F Osaka Station City, JR Osaka Station

4. Features

(1) Venue Decorations

○Details: Toki-no-hiroba Plaza at the top of Osaka Station is transformed into a colorful festival. The decorations are a modern Japanese take on summer festivals, with red and black as the base colors. Big artworks modeled on scaffolded lanterns are put up throughout the venue along with shogi seats and nodategasa umbrellas to evoke a sense of summer in Japan.

There are plenty of summery spots to take a photo, from a rickshaw decorated with flowers to stands with various characters.
