3. Eligibility

These products can be purchased and used only by customers holding a passport issued by a government or other agency outside of Japan and who have a residential status that qualifies as “Temporary Visitor.”

4. How to purchase

(1) Purchasing at a travel agency outside Japan

- Purchase an exchange order and exchange it for a ticket at one of the designated locations (JR-West and other stations, some travel agencies) after entering Japan.
- When exchanging, in addition to the exchange order, you will also need to show your passport to confirm your qualifications for purchase and use.

(2) Purchasing via JR-WEST ONLINE TRAIN RESERVATION

- Purchase from the products page of the JR-West website (English, Korean, Traditional Chinese, Simplified Chinese), and receive the ticket at one of the designated locations (JR-West and other stations) after entering Japan.

[Products page of the JR-West Global website]

English	https://www.westjr.co.jp/global/en/ticket/
Korean	https://www.westjr.co.jp/global/kr/ticket/
Traditional Chinese	https://www.westjr.co.jp/global/tc/ticket/
Simplified Chinese	https://www.westjr.co.jp/global/sc/ticket/

- When receiving your purchase, you will need the credit card used for payment at the time of the reservation, the reservation number, the PIN which you set yourself, and a passport or other document that can confirm your qualifications for purchase and use. (This varies depending on the method of reservation and receiving.)
- * For details about the methods of use and the necessary items to receive the ticket, please check the JR-WEST ONLINE TRAIN RESERVATION User Guide.

(3) Purchasing in Japan

- Purchase a ticket at one of the limited travel agencies in the JR-West area or elsewhere.
 - * Of the products subject to review, only the Takayama-Hokuriku Area Tourist Pass can be purchased at some JR-West stations in addition to travel agencies.

5. Transitional handling

Exchange orders that were purchased, and tickets that were reserved or purchased, on or before March 15, 2024, are subject to the following transitional handling.

- For products that can be used on the Hokuriku Line between Tsuruga and Kanazawa, the user may use the Hokuriku Shinkansen (between Tsuruga and Kanazawa) in place of the Hokuriku Line where the ticket was originally valid on and after March 16 without paying an additional charge within the valid period.
 - * The section which will be transferred to Hapi-Line Fukui and IR Ishikawa Railway (between Tsuruga and Kanazawa) cannot be used on and after March 16. However, as a special case, when using the JR Etsumihoku Line, the Hapi-Line Fukui (between Fukui and Echizen-Hanando) may be used as long as the customer passes through without disembarking.
